Golden Gate (City Spies #2)

By James Ponti

(Aladdin, 9781534414945, $17.99, available March)

“The youngest spies at MIG are embarking on another mission. After thwarting a kidnapping attempt on the high seas, Sydney and Brooklyn are at odds. But they’ll need to figure it out if they’re going to join the other spies on a mission to uncover a mole and maybe find Mother’s children. I loved this second entry in the City Spies series! Once again, Ponti has taken a fantastic idea that could end up rather goofy and made it feel possible...and fun and exciting at the same time!”
